COUNCIL HIRES W. K. GILBERT TO RUN METERS

Gettysburg borough council guided a fine legal thread through a legislative needle Monday evening and came up with a "meter man," William K. Gilbert, York St.

The action consisted of passing a lengthy amendment to Section 11 of an ordinance designating parking spaces. The amendment had about 11 import words in it which changed the ordinance to permit hiring a meter man to check the meters, repair them and put tickets on the violators. The wording, inserted after "it shall be the duty of police officers," was "and any other employee or person designated by the safety committee."

Councilmen looked somewhat stunned after the amendment to the ordinance of 1954 "as amended" was read. It was then explained that the insertion of the words "and any other employee etc." permitted council to name a "meter man" who could handle the meters and give tickets without going through the formalities of a civil service examination and appointment of a full-time policeman to the job — as required under the unamended ordinance. It also permitted hiring a meter man for 40 hours a week at $1.40 an hour or about $1,000 a year cheaper than the cost of a policeman.

APPOINT GILBERT

Following the council meeting Gilbert was appointed as the meter man. Since he also serves as a special policeman his salary will be approximately that of the full-time policeman in serving about as many hours as a full time policeman puts in.

An ordinance prohibiting outdoor fires in Gettysburg without a permit from the burgess — excepting such fires as might be in fireplaces or charcoal burners, etc., for cooking purposes outdoors — and providing for a $2 fee for 24-hour permits and $5 fees for annual permits, was voted down 4 to 2 when submitted to council. On a roll call vote Councilmen George Naugle, John Welshonice, Mahlon P. Hartzell and Richard Smith opposed; Mrs. Rebecca Schwenk and Philip Jones approved and Robert McCoy passed.

Councilman John D. Thrush, arriving after the vote on the fire banning ordinance, sought to speak on the subject when he was called upon in the regular "round" of the councilmen during which they state whatever business they may have for council. Council President Glenn Guise rapped Attorney Thrush down on the subject, saying there had been enough talk about the fire ban.

LEGION URGES FLAG DISPLAY OVER "FOURTH"

The Albert J. Lentz Post of the American Legion at its meeting Monday evening urged residents of the town to "display the flag on July 4 — the birthday of our nation."

Plans were made to return Clyde R. Root and Carl A. Spriggs from the Keystone Boys Camp at Pennsylvania State University. The two local youths were sponsored by the post at the two-week camp which ends today. The camp is conducted by the Pennsylvania Department of the American Legion and provides a two-week course in operation of state, local and national government.

It was announced that Commander John Maloney will represent the post at the state American Legion convention at Philadelphia on July 19 to 21. The post voted that Maloney and any other delegates from the local post who may be able to attend go to the convention "uninstructed."

DRIVER DOZES AND CAR HITS UTILITY POLE

Barry P. Gotwalt, 113 Maple Ave., Hanover, escaped serious injury Monday evening at 6:35 o'clock when he fell asleep while driving on W. Middle St., in the 400 block, and his car struck a telephone pole.

Borough Policeman Paul B. Shearer said Gotwalt, an employee of Joe the Motorist recently transferred from Hanover to Hagerstown, was on his way home from work when he fell asleep and his car left the highway and hit the pole, demolishing the auto. Gotwalt suffered some cuts and bruises but did not immediately seek medical attention. Damage to the car was estimated at $150. The accident was one of three investigated by borough police Monday.

At 11:30 Monday morning they were called when a station wagon operated by Terry Kay Goshorn, Biglerville R. 2, on the Acme parking lot, backed into a car of Elaine Little, 247 Baltimore St. Police estimated damage at $100 to the station wagon and none to the car.

At 3:15 o'clock Monday afternoon a truck operated by Ronald E. Wilson, 224 1/2 E. Middle St., headed west on Chambersburg St. in attempting a left turn into S. Washington St. collided with a car being driven east on Chambersburg St. by Donald E. Horner, York Haven. Damage was estimated at $150 to the truck and $90 to the car.

Canadians Watch Impact Of Doctors' Strike As Holiday Weekend Closes

REGINA, Sask. (AP)—The full impact of a doctors' strike against a new compulsory medical care plan is expected to hit this province of 928,000 people today with the end of a three-day holiday weekend.

Saskatchewan residents waited to learn just what medical services were available. Many doctors struck Sunday to protest against the start of the plan. But customary closing of clinics and offices for the Dominion Day holiday weekend had made it difficult to determine how many of the province's 700 doctors walked out.

DOCTORS' CLAIMS

The striking doctors claim that the plan—first of its type in North America—gives the government control of the medical profession. Volunteer doctors provided free emergency service at 34 designated hospitals, but by Monday night the number available slipped to

FRANKLIN TWP. SCHOOL PLANS MOVING AHEAD

The Franklin Twp. school building project, delayed several weeks by a fruitless appeal to the state for a fairer schedule of "prevailing wages" required under new state legislation, got going again today after a special meeting of the township board of school directors and the Gettysburg School Authority board.

Armed with signed agreements from all of the low-bidding contractors in which the bidders agreed to stand by their previous offer although the state had raised some of the wage rates after the appeal was taken from the first rates which the township school authorities had regarded as "too high," the $405,000 bond issue was awarded on the bid of a Philadelphia firm.

The offer of Rambo, Close and Kerner, Philadelphia, for the $405,000 30-year bond issue was announced with the interest rate figured at 3.693 per cent. School officials said they regard that rate, as compared with other recent issues in nearby school districts, as a "good figure."

NEED STATE OKAY

Formal awarding of the contracts and general progress of the project now must await state Department of Public Instruction approval of a revised PIBB-40B form being submitted to Harrisburg today.

The annual rental to the school authority under the bond issue will be $23,550.

The meeting Monday evening was held at the Franklin Twp. School at Cashtown. Arthur E. Hutchison presided at the Authority board meeting and Dr. Lloyd C. Keefeauver served as secretary. Thomas O. Oyler is the township board president.

SALE THIS EVENING

The school board reviewed bids on furnishings and equipment but awarding of those contracts also must await state approval of the project.

The low bidders on the contracts for remodeling of the Cashtown school, construction of an annex and a sewage disposal system, as tabulated May 21 when the bids were opened, included: General contract, C. M. Gross and Sons, Inc., Dover, $206,475; heating, Kottcamp Construction Company, Chambersburg, $37,256; electrical, Miller-Liskey Electric Company, Hagerstown, $35,500; plumbing, Frank Black, Inc., Carlisle, $18,235, and sewage treatment, Black, $35,476.

This evening the Franklin Twp. school board will conduct a public sale of used furniture at the Cashtown school. The furniture will include desks and seats taken there from the Valley School which is to be sold later this summer.

TOURIST FLOW TAKES UPTURN DURING JUNE

Tourist visitation to Gettysburg is now slightly ahead of the visitation a year ago, according to the report of Park Ranger John Rogers.

A large influx of campers, mostly Boy Scout units, brought the number of visitors during June to 280,201, an increase over June a year ago when 249,940 visited the 'field.

As a result, the total visitation for the year is now 766,844, or 2,292 more than the 764,552 counted during the first six months of 1961.

Tourist visitation had — up to May 30 — been slightly lower for several months than for the comparable periods a year ago. The visitation record for this year by months is as follows: January, 14,066; February, 30,350; March, 46,037; April 158,989; May, 237,191; June, 280,201.

The comparable figures for the same months a year ago were: January, 12,160; February, 17,765; March, 81,824; April, 176,122; May, 225,713; June, 249,940.

DAMAGE SUIT IS FILED HERE

An action-in-trespass has been filed in the prothonotary's office by Attorney Gerald A. Walmer for C. P. Keefe, as guardian of the estate of Theresa M. Small and Anna Mary Small, 130 W. High St., New Oxford, against Stanley A. Starnier, Gardners R. 1.

The suit stems from an accident on the Lincoln Highway in New Oxford on June 18, 1961. According to the complaint, Theresa M. Small was attempting to cross the Lincoln Highway at Bolton St. when she was struck by a vehicle operated by Starnier, suffering a broken leg. As a result of the accident she was in the Hanover Hospital from June 18 to July 12. Expenses included $400 for physicians, $458.20 for the hospital and $70.80 for clothing.

The petition holds that as a result of the weakening of the thigh bone as a result of the break, it fractured again at the same spot on January 2, 1962, when she fell on ice. At that time the physician's bill was $150 and the hospital bill $458.75. She was forced to wear a body cast for two months and was confined to bed and her home for some time. Additional treatment will be needed in the future according to the complaint. Damages in excess of $5,000 are asked.

AUTO DRIVER HURT

Mrs. Mary Heller Wilson, 43, Gardners R. 2, was treated over the weekend at the Carlisle Hospital for injuries to her knee, ankle and left shoulder, suffered when her car ran off Route 223 about 10 miles south of Mt. Holly Springs and struck a utility pole.

Most state and federal employees were looking forward to a holiday.

BAD WEATHER COULD HALT FIRE FESTIVAL

Gettysburg firemen are all set to go ahead with their festival at the recreation field this evening — weather permitting.

Chairman Robert Neary said that Ed Lincoln, York disc jockey, will present a record hop tonight as scheduled, if the weather clears. Rain so far has "only settled the dust," Neary said.

The firemen found a "good Monday night crowd" at the opening session of the week long festival at Recreation Park.

ANTICIPATE LARGE CROWD

It is anticipated one of the largest crowds will be at the festival on Wednesday night following the annual parade on Wednesday at 4 p.m.

Para's chairman Robert Redding said today the three-division parade will include six bands, five drum corps, 10 floats, 10 majorette groups, 10 other marching units and about 35 pieces of fire equipment.

Mayor William G. Weaver will be grand marshal for the parade. The grand marshal's unit will include the Gettysburg Senior High School band, the local Howitzer Battery of the 104th Armored Cavalry, and floats from Litterkenny Ordnance Depot and Mechanicsburg Naval Depot.

BATTLE LOOMS OVER METERS IN SOUTH END

The possibility of placing parking meters on the southern portion of Baltimore St. and on Steinwehr Ave. was raised in Gettysburg Borough Council Monday evening.

It came evident that council will run into heavy opposition from the tourist interests if it attempts to put the meters there.

Council President Glenn Guise raised the question by noting that last year council authorized the safety and highway committees to place meters on Baltimore St. and Steinwehr Ave., and then asked Councilman George Naugle, chairman of the safety committee: "What's been done about it?"

SEES STIFF OPPOSITION

Naugle replied that no action had been taken. His committee, he said, had planned to move the meters on one side of High St. and S. Stratton St. when council passed an ordinance banning parking from one side of those streets and making them two-way streets. When council turned down that ordinance, Naugle, his committee was without meters for the job.

He added that he would determine the number of meters needed and report at next month's meeting and, "if council authorizes us to buy the new meters, we will go ahead with the work."

That led Mayor William G. Weaver, who manages the Hall of Presidents, to comment: "I think you would meet with stiff resistance from that area. It is used almost entirely by tourists. Why pick on the tourists?"

Councilman Richard Smith said: "Who are we picking on, when you have a parking lot, and most of the tourist places have their own parking lots? Why pick on the people of the town by putting the meters downtown?"

The council president stopped the matter there by rapping the gavel and noting: "We are not going to have any arguments now." He directed Naugle to continue with his plans to bring in a report on the number of meters needed, which would bring up the discussion next month.

It was not noted by anyone that parking meters are not installed legally to raise funds since the town cannot rent parking spaces on the public streets but are installed legally only to help regulate the flow of traffic. The legal regulation of the flow of traffic brings in about $5,000 a month for borough uses, but that is only a welcome result of a legal solution of a problem of traffic flow.

Peace Marchers Hold Vigil Here

Borough police have been notified that the York Action-For-Peace groups will conduct a three-hour "vigil" Wednesday at the Peace Light.

According to the plans, as reported to police, the contingent will arrive about 10 o'clock Wednesday morning and park cars in Gettysburg, then walk on the sidewalks to the edge of the town and continue the walk until they reach the memorial. The report to police was that "only a small group" will take part in the walk through town.

The police said no literature will be distributed by the group during their walk. The York unit is scheduled to be joined by others from Philadelphia, Lancaster and Maryland at the Peace Light. The "vigil" is to last from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

REYNOLDS ST. IS ORDAINED; STATE TOLD TO 'FORGET' SIGNS

Reynolds St., extending 192 feet north from W. High St., was ordained by borough council at its meeting Monday evening in the engine house.

At the same time council ordained "Plank Alley" which extends eastward from the end of the Reynolds St. extension to another public alley running between W. High and W. Middle Sts. The new street was ordained for a 50-foot width, with a 30-foot highway surface and two 10-foot sidewalks.

Approval was given for a meeting of the highway and safety committees with the borough planning committee to "clarify some areas of difference." The action was taken on request of Councilman Robert McCoy who did not describe to council the "areas of difference."

NEW SIGNS OUT

A letter was read from the state Highways Department stating that plans for placing large signs at the entrances of the square to inform drivers of the direction to various places was being "held in abeyance" pending action of council. A letter from the Lions Club protesting the plan to place the new signs was read. Council then voted to "notify the state highway department to forget about new signs in Lincoln Square."

Council gave authority for the sending of final "10-day" notices for replacement of curbs on Liberty St. if an inspection by Borough Engineer LeRoy H. Winebrenner shows the curbs along the street are not in sufficient repair to permit reconstruction of the street starting about August 1. The "10-day notices" are to be sent within a few days, if needed, so the street work can be started by the end of the month.

Eugene Headley, local representative of the state Department of Health, reported a spot survey had been made by state and federal public health authorities of the areas surveyed in the town two years ago by a public health team.

GERMANS WORK ON NEW WALLS ALONG BORDER

BERLIN (AP)—Working behind a screen of smoke and tear gas, the Communists began building a wall along West Berlin's border with East Germany Monday night. There was some suspicion they planned to surround West Berlin with concrete and steel barriers. The Communists have virtually completed the barricade they began last August along the 26-mile border between East and West Berlin. Until Monday night, the 69-mile rough area marking West Berlin's boundary with East Germany had been fenced off only with barbed wire.

West Berlin police said the extension work began at Falkensee Chaussee, a broad street leading from the East German village of Falkensee into the northwest corner of the divided city. Trucks unloaded concrete slabs there and at Seegelder Weg, a parallel street about 1,000 yards to the south.

TEAR GAS BOMBS

East German police threw tear gas and smoke bombs at the West to screen the activity, but West Berlin police could see the workmen laboring under floodlights in a cold rain to replace the barbed wire with masonry.

The extent of the Communist plans to extend the wall could not be determined immediately. The work began only a day after East German Interior Minister Karl Maron called on his police to make the "protective wall even more impenetrable."

Police Arrest Man In Theft

SPRINGFIELD, Pa. (AP)—Police have arrested an Ardmore man they say attempted to rob a pharmacist.

Howard C. Friel Jr., 36, was taken into custody following a three-mile chase in this Delaware County community Monday night. Four shots were fired by police but no one was hit.

Officers said Friel hid in the back seat of the car of Stanley Hirsch, 45, of Springfield, for more than an hour and surprised the pharmacist after he had closed his Clifton Heights pharmacy and got into the auto with $1,000 in week end receipts.

Officers quoted Hirsch as saying he went about three blocks when he heard someone say: "This is a holdup." Hirsch told police that as he neared a bank where he intended to take the receipts, he slowed the car, opened the door and jumped out. He said the man moved into the driver's seat and sped away. A police escort which Hirsch had arranged to follow him to the bank saw what was happening and took up the chase.

Police said Friel admitted he had robbed Hirsch of $700 three weeks ago.

SILVERDALE, Pa. (AP)—Theresa Cahill, 10, missing since she went for a ride in a stranger's automobile, was found dead today.

Her body was found in a wooded area within five miles of where she was kidnapped Monday.

MONROE, N.Y. (AP)—An automobile ran off the road and tumbled down an embankment near here early today, killing the driver and his passenger.

ing ordinance and that if Thrush had something to say on the subject he should have been present when the matter was before council. Thrush argued, "I'm just as much a councilman as anyone else and have a right to speak." After some heated discussion it became evident that all Thrush wanted to say on the subject was that he had an alternate proposed ordinance if council had further interest in the matter and would present it at next month's meeting.

EMERGENCY POWERS

Thrush, who is chairman of the ordinance committee, also said that he believes that the appointment of special police under the borough code as done at present is illegal because they are appointed under the "emergency powers" of the burgess. Thrush said that "since you know what is going to happen on Friday and Saturday nights and Sunday afternoon and know in advance you need extra policemen to handle the traffic it is not an 'emergency' and we can get into trouble." He proposed that an ordinance be adopted under the general municipal code permitting the appointment of auxiliary police, which he said would remove the legal obstacle.

Borough Solicitor Donald G. Oyler said that Thrush had "a well taken point" on the use of "emergency powers" but declared the same problem would obtain under an ordinance under the "auxiliary police" law. Thrush suggested the matter be taken before the court for a "declaratory judgment" and promised he would report next month on what type of procedure should be followed to "determine which is right."

Other councilmen, who have heard argument for several years on whether there is a law which permits the town to have part-time policemen without going through Civil Service, raised the question, in effect: "Who is going to call the town to task on it, and if it is illegal who has to pay for it?"

Thrush said an irate taxpayer might bring the matter before the court and that those who approved the payment of the part-time policemen might have to pay back the money.

When it came time to vote on payment of approved bills, Thrush was the only one to vote against payment of the part-time policemen, stating that while he favored use of part-time policemen he felt they should operate under another ordinance instead of the "emergency" law.

Prince Wants U.S. To Move Laos Troops

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—Acting Premier Prince Souphanouvong said today he would like to see all American troops leave neighboring Thailand because "Laos is not threatening anybody."

The pro-Communist prince told foreign newsmen he had read newspaper reports that the United States was pulling out 1,000 Marines from its 5,000-man task force stationed in Thailand, but he added, "I am skeptical about them."

Laos, said Souphanouvong in an interview at his Vientiane villa, will never threaten the security of her neighbors but will always be "a bridge of peace and friendship."

Souphanouvong indicated he was ready to cooperate with the United States by releasing Americans held by the Pathet Lao, but he questioned U.S. actions in both Thailand and Laos.

Goldwater Is Criticized For Boycotting GOP Meeting Here

By JACK BELL
HERSHEY, Pa. (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater's boycott of the All-Republican conference drew sharp criticism today from four GOP governors.

Govs. John H. Reed of Maine, Norman A. Erbe of Iowa, Robert E. Smylie of Idaho and George D. Clyde of Utah voiced strong support for the new Republican organization formed last Saturday at former President Dwight D. Eisenhower's Gettysburg, Pa., farm.

In Gettysburg, a spokesman for Eisenhower said the general had not read Goldwater's statement and therefore could not comment. Smylie said he thinks Goldwater is "entirely wrong about his approach to this matter."

"This conference will give all of the elements of the Republican party an opportunity to come forward with their views," Smylie said. "I think this is a very healthy thing for the party."

Each of the four governors said in his own way in separate interviews he believes Goldwater, a spokesman for conservatives, is making a mistake in turning his back on a conference sponsored to give governors, state party officials and nonofficeholders a voice in party affairs.

The Arizona senator, who heads the Republican Senatorial Campaign Committee, wrote National Chairman William E. Miller Monday that leaders of the new conference group are people who caused most of our party troubles.

"It is unthinkable," he said, "that they should be given another opportunity to lead us down the path of destruction. Let's be done with these splinter groups."

Reached at his summer home near Buffalo, N.Y., Miller said he had not received Goldwater's letter. "And I don't wish to make any comment on it until I read it thoroughly," he said.

DEMOCRAT COUNCIL

When the Democrats were out of power they set up a Democratic Advisory Council. Its aim was to give the party a national voice during the Republican Eisenhower administration.

The council ran into trouble from the start.

Weighted heavily with Northern liberals the council was established by the Democratic National Committee in February 1957 over the protests of many Southern delegates.

The group was not received with open arms by the party's congressional leaders, many of whom refused to join it.

They said party policy in Congress could not be bound by actions of an outside group.

Although Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois indicated he thinks the party is becoming "over-organized," the four governors said they had no such fears.

Extra Policemen Kept Busy Here

Gettysburg police were augmented by five fire police and four special police Sunday to help speed the 80-car caravan of the governor's conference through the town. The police had not been notified that the caravan was traveling in two sections and thus had a little more difficulty with the second and unexpected section when it arrived. They quickly cleared the way however and the "surprise" was not noticed by the caravan.

The halting of traffic for the brief time for the caravan to pass however stopped vehicles on the streets leading from the square to the borough limits and police were busy for about 15 minutes afterward restoring traffic to its normal passage rate.

ROBERTS SUES FOR ARMY POST

WASHINGTON (AP)—Maj. Arch E. Roberts, relieved from active duty on charges he made improper statements in a speech, has asked a federal court to make the Army take him back and give him a promotion.

Roberts charged Monday that his superiors violated the law and Army regulations when they ordered him to inactive status.

He asked for reinstatement and a promotion to the rank of lieutenant colonel.

The major, once an aide to the former Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker, was taken off active duty after addressing the Daughters of the American Revolution last April 19. In his speech, Roberts charged Mayor Samuel Yorty of Los Angeles had a Communist background. Yorty denied the charge.

Roberts also said Assistant Secretary of State G. Mennen Williams had leftist leanings.

Roberts, 48, contends in his U.S. District court suit that the Army should have given him a hearing as an officer within 15 months of completing 20 years' service. That would have qualified him for an immediate pension.

DUTCH COMEDY AT TOTEM POLE

The Pennsylvania Dutch comedy "Apple in the Attic" by Mildred Jordan and Lucile Logan, based on Miss Logan's novel of the same name, opened at Totem Pole Playhouse Monday evening and played to the largest Monday evening audience the playhouse has yet had. It was sponsored by the Zonta Club, a woman's service club of Hagerstown, for their Girls' Club fund.

Jean Stapleton and Erik Silyu appeared in the leading roles of Emma and Jacob Dreihelbis. Miss Stapleton appeared earlier this summer in the season's opener "The Miracle Worker." Mr. Silyu is remembered for his performance last summer in "South Pacific." The play is set on two farms in Sinking Springs, Pa., near Reading. The large cast, under the direction of William H. Putsch, utilized their revolving stage. The scenes shift from farm to farm and climax in a farmer's market scene at the end of act one.

Difficult as it is for most "outsiders" to imitate the Pennsylvania Dutch dialect, Miss Stapleton was convincing in her role of the browbeaten housewife and in developing the theme of the play "Apple in the Attic" handled with skill scenes that in less sensitive hands might have been vulgar. She developed the humor in the role of "Emma" without losing the sympathy of the audience. The part of "Jacob," her husband, played by Silyu, was considered by some as too heavily drawn for the average Dutchman but he provided much laughter in keeping of his "wow" not to talk to his wife, by talking through a parrot he brought home.

Billie Heffner, playing her first role in her eighth season at the playhouse, probably had the most authentic accent. She played several Dutch skits when she entertained the local AAUW last winter. Eulalie Noble, who has played in Broadway productions and adequately took the part of the neighbor Carrie Vogel, will fly to Greece with her husband and son to appear in Elia Kazan's new film next week. The audience enjoyed Paul B. Rice in the meek role of husband Abner Vogel. Ted Graeber, last week's "White Sheep," was seen as a colorful powwow doctor. In supporting roles were Clara Heller, Alex Finlayson, Charley Ann Perkins, Beth Brickell, Donna Rago, William Matthews, Robert G. Thompson, Francesca Heller and Walter Avery. Shaw Messner appeared as the little daughter in the play. She is the oldest daughter of Molly and Bud Messner of WCBG and proved to be a good actress. Her two sisters, Drew and Megan, also appear in the play. Maryann B. Hull, Chambersburg, playing an antique dealer, and her two young sons, Michael and Stephen, carried their parts well. Betty Knepper, who handles the decor for the stage settings, took the part of Minnie Kitzmiller.

THIRD WOMAN IS MURDERED BY STRANGLER

LYNN, Mass. (AP)—A third strangulation homicide within three weeks in Greater Boston—again following a pattern—confronted Lynn authorities today.

The body of Helen E. Blake, 65, a practical nurse, was found in her apartment Monday night. Miss Blake had been strangled with her brassiere and a nylon stocking.

Last Saturday night the body of Nina G. Nichols, 68, was discovered in her apartment in Boston's Brighton section.

THIRD SLAYING

On June 14, the body of Anna E. Slesers, 55, was found in her Back Bay apartment in Boston.

Mrs. Nichols was garroted with a nylon stocking. Mrs. Slesers was strangled with the cord of her housecoat.

All were killed at night in their apartments where they lived alone.

The three apartments were thoroughly ransacked, but police said nothing valuable was taken.

All three homicides are unsolved.

SENATE SUGAR BILL UP FOR ADJUSTMENTS

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate has passed a sugar extension bill and sent it to President Kennedy for signing. But the administration hurriedly sought to modify it to soothe the several outraged Latin-American nations who feel they were being short-changed.

The Senate completed congressional action on the compromise measure Monday night, voting 54-12 approval after lengthy debate.

Immediately Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana moved to alter the protested provisions by offering an amendment to a minor bill already passed by the House.

ADDITIONAL ALLOTMENT

The amendment would provide an additional allotment of premium-price sugar for Western Hemisphere nations.

Several of them—namely Argentina and the Dominican Republic—have complained they were badly treated under the extension legislation. They feared the bill would sharply reduce the amount of sugar they could export to the United States at premium prices.

Mansfield was not able to get an immediate vote on his proposal, however, because some senators wanted to make other changes. He finally decided to put the vote over to Thursday since many members were to be absent today.

The extension bill increases the domestic growers' share of the U.S. sugar market and gives the President some flexibility in disposing of 1.64 million tons reserved for Cuba if that country installs a democratic government. These purchases could be at the world price.

Over administration objections, 1.2 million tons were awarded as permanent quotas to 23 designated countries.

THREE GOOD REELS.

Taft and Sherman Named: With nearly 344 of the Roosevelt delegates declining to vote and hastening away at adjournment time to tender to Colonel Theodore Roosevelt the nomination of a new party the fifteenth Republican national convention at the end of a long and tumultuous session renominated William Howard Taft, of Ohio, for president, and James Schoolcraft Sherman, of New York, for vice president. The nomination for president was placed by Warren G. Harding, of Ohio. When he reached the name "William Howard Taft" floor and galleries burst into life and a great demonstration ensued. Through the tumult, California, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and the Roosevelt states sat silent. Later the followers of Colonel Roosevelt gathered in Orchestra hall and pledged their support to the former president in a new party to be called "The Progressive Party."

Caught In Revolving Saw: Raymond Adams, the sixteen-year-old son of J. B. Adams, Highland Township, was caught in the large circular saw at the mill of Holbert A. Myers this morning sustaining a severe cut to the leg, the teeth going entirely through the flesh to the bone. The boy narrowly escaped having the leg severed a short distance from the knee. The mill has been operating for several days in Charles Hershey's woods and this morning young Adams was helping. A piece of bark had gotten under the saw and as he was trying to free it he was caught in the drag. His shirt sleeve was pulled off and in struggling to free himself he lost his balance and was drawn around over the sharp teeth of the revolving saw. Dr. Elderdicke of and rendered surgical aid. That the boy was not more seriously hurt was most fortunate.

Small Excursion: Eighty people from Gettysburg went to Baltimore on this morning's excursion. Among the number were Prof. Calvin Hamilton, Miss Ruth Hamilton, P. M. The Star and Sentinel has been the property of the Buehler family for about 47 years and has been conducted as a Republican paper, with the best interests of

Today's Talk

When I was a boy I thought it showed "spirit" for one person to "talk back" to another. I am glad I no longer feel or think this way. I was a great admirer of my father's strong will and singleness of purpose. I used to believe that no one could surpass him in an argument. One day a gentleman began to boast and talk about a subject I knew was particularly obnoxious to my father. I listened with bated breath. What would my father say? How he would wither that man's tongue, thought I.

But my father only listened, nodded his head now and then — and when the gentleman had ceased, courteously turned from him with a smile and walked away. "Why did you not answer that man?" I inquired. "Because," replied my father, "it would have accomplished nothing. That man believed he was right. Nothing I would say would ever change him, no matter how wrong he might be."

I have never forgotten that incident. It has saved me many a personal headache, I am sure.

How useless, foolish and unkind is all this strife of tongues which assails one's ears so often. There is something admirable about anyone who has beliefs and who sticks to them, right or wrong, just so long as that person believes he is right. A school teacher once told me, that I had a right to believe I was right in anything, until it was proven I was wrong.

This is why I so detest war. To think that the murdering of great masses of human beings and destruction of beautiful countryside could ever prove any argument or principle or dispute right!

The older I have grown, the more I have come to realize the uselessness and foolishness of all disputes. There is always so much beauty and happiness outside all this strife of tongues.

JULY THE FOURTH

This is the day the bell was rung So loudly that its massive tongue Cracked the great side, as if to swell

The glorious news it had to tell. This is the day when liberty More than man's dream began to be,

And freedom on the earth began To found the fellowship of man.

This is the day we turn aside In love and gratitude and pride That still we bear the banner high For which our fathers dared to die.

'Gainst all the storms of hate that sweep May we this day forever keep. Grant us, O Lord, unto the end The cause of freedom to defend!

Battlefield Guide's Oratory: Dr. G. Albert Blair of Chambersburg, with several friends visited the battlefield this week and had William McCleary act as guide for the tour. Chambersburg Public Opinion tells of the physician's trip here and says among other things: "When the party listened at Bloody Angle to the story of Pickett's Charge as recited by 'Billy' McCleary, the guide, Mr. Prather felt that he could hear the reverberation of the cannons' boom, the rattle of the musketry and the Rebel yell. And when 'Billy' recited Lincoln's famous speech the trio stood with uncovered heads in appreciation and complimented his oratory. But when he explained that he had been doing this for 20 years for parties, at so much per patriot, they understood why he excelled the great emancipator, because Lincoln had only one chance at it."

This Fellow Evened Score And Then Some

WASHINGTON (AP) — Don't fight with your neighbor over a dog. Your wife might answer the door some day and find a mail-order sweetheart, calling for you. Federal Prison Director J. V. Bennett told a House Appropriations subcommittee last Jan. 25 about such a fellow.

Here is Bennett's story in testimony released today:

"In Baltimore, there was a fellow who was a much-decorated paratrooper and got into an altercation with his neighbor next door over a dog. Well, that caused a fight between him and his neighbor and a third neighbor, so they beat up this fellow, kicked out his teeth, sent him to the hospital for about two weeks, and apparently while he was in the hospital he mulled over how he would try to get even with these fellows.

"So, when he came out, he went around to see the police and they would not do anything about it.

"The first thing he did was to call up the Alcoholics Anonymous group and tell them that his next door neighbor was in need of treatment, so they sent around a task force to look after him. Then he began ordering things through the mails and having them sent to his neighbor.

"He ordered a big fruit cake from Fort Worth sent to a lady down the street, and signed this man's name to it and then she, in turn, called up this man's wife and thanked him for his generosity, saying what a fine person he was.

CROWNING BLOW

"Then he began ordering other things, but the crowning blow was that he had carried on some correspondence with a lady whose name he had gotten out of one of those lonely hearts clubs, and in the name of this fellow next door, he invited her to come and call on him at his home.

"Sure enough, she showed up in all her finery, apparently, and of course, she was met at the door at the right time by the man's wife. There you have it."

Dick Donovan Beats Birds To End Indians' Losing Streak; Yanks Defeat A's

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Subtract Dick Donovan from Cleveland and the Indians very well could be floundering around in the second division.

As it is, the hopeful Indians are just a half game off the American League pace being set by the New York Yankees and Los Angeles Angels.

The Indians, in the throes of a five-game losing string that had knocked them out of first place, called on Donovan to be the stopper Monday night.

FACED 27 BATTERS

The tall right-hander, acquired in the trade that sent fiery Jim Piersall to Washington, responded with a brilliant two-hit, 2-0 triumph over Baltimore in which he faced the minimum 27 batters.

The victory pushed his record to 12-3, which subtracted from the Indians 42-34 season mark, would put Cleveland below .500 and in seventh place.

New York and Los Angeles remained a half-game up on the Indians, the Yankees beating Kansas City 3-4 and the Angels edging Washington 2-1. It left the Yankees with a .004 hold on first place, Minnesota lost to Boston 4-3 and went 1½ games off the pace, while Detroit edged Chicago 2-1.

YANK RALLY WINS

New York blew a 4-0 lead, fashioned on home runs by Roger Maris, Hector Lopez and Mickey Vernon, to beat the Red Sox 5-4.

STUART SURGE AIDS PIRATES

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — The Pittsburgh Pirates, who finally have overcome most early season injuries, opened a four-game series against the Colts Monday with but one major concern—Dick Stuart's batting average.

They should begin tonight's game a little less bothered.

Pittsburgh exploded for three runs in an argument filled seventh inning and added another in the ninth to take the first game 4-2, and Stuart was right in the middle of it all.

GETS HOMER

The tall, handsome first baseman had an important single in the seventh and belted his 11th home run in the ninth, which was only the second run scored off Houston relief pitcher Don McMahon in 22 and a third inning.

The homer struck the seats in left center so hard it bounced back onto the field, Stuart said. "It was the first ball I've hit good in a week."

The hits put Stuart two for four for the night, which is not bad for a man who has been hitting around .200 most of the season.

At this time last year, Stuart was one of the National League's two All-Star first basemen. He'll be watching the game on television this year.

Eastern League

The Binghamton Trips think Granny Hamner, one-time star shortstop with the Philadelphia Phillies, is the best pitcher in the Class A Eastern League.

But lately the Trips, who also are managed by Hamner, haven't been able to score enough runs to back him up.

They have failed to score a run for the right-hander in the last 25 innings he has pitched and he has dropped his last two games. He dropped a 1-0 game to Springfield on June 28 and Monday night lost to Elmira 2-0 as $85,000 bonus baby Dave McNally bested him.

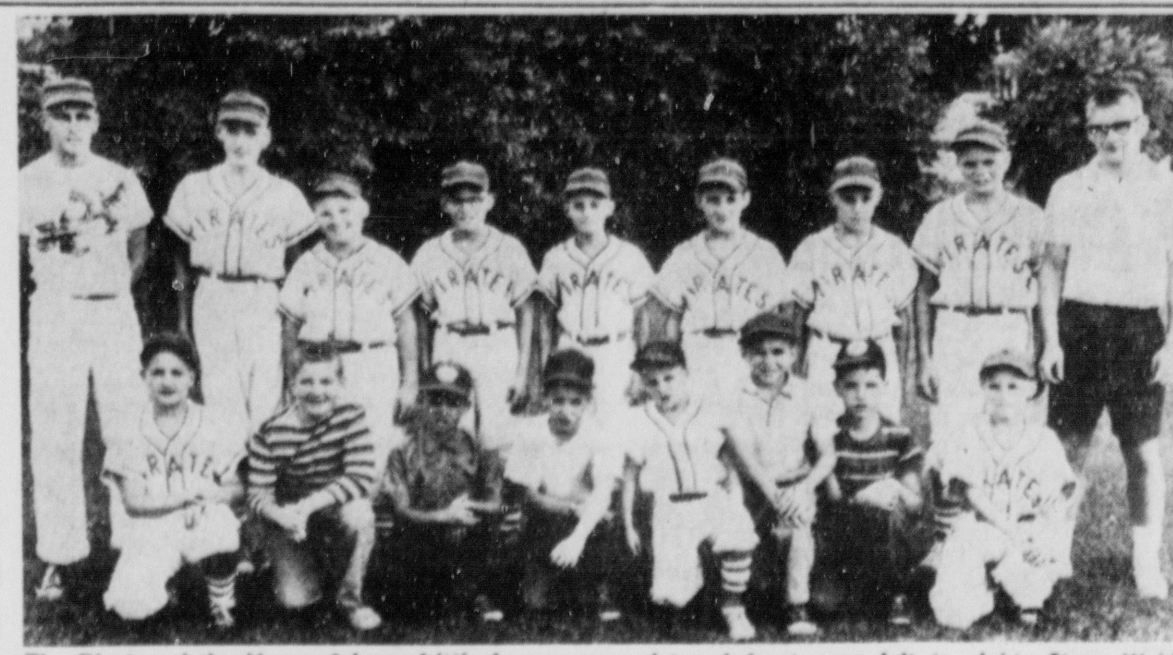

McNally (8-7) gave up six hits and struck out nine compared to five hits allowed by Hamner (7-3) and four strikeouts. Hamner pitched his 10th complete game and now has an earned run average of 1.80.

In the only other game Monday night, second-place York defeated Springfield 6-3. Williamsport at Charleston was rained out.

All SP Teams Have Holiday Games Wednesday

All South Penn League teams have engagements for the Fourth of July holiday, Wednesday, with Gettysburg slated to meet league-leading New Oxford on the Recreation Park field at noon, the time having been moved up in order not to conflict with the annual parade later in the afternoon.

Other holiday games, scheduled to start at 2 p.m., include:

Taneytown at Cashtown, Gettysburg at Hagerstown, Williamsport at Hagerstown, Williamsport at Hagerstown, Williamsport at Hagerstown.

At Gettysburg, the Orioles, second place team, topped the White Sox 8-3. Jim Taylor rapped a pair of doubles for the Orioles and Don Kravetz smacked a triple. Bill Starnes also tripled for the White Sox.

Score by innings: Orioles 030 032 0-8-6-1 White Sox 100 002 0-3-3-4

Batteries: Orioles, W. Crum and D. Crum; White Sox, Kane, Starnes (5) and Bushey.

The Idaville Senators and Biglerville Red Legs battled to a 4-4 tie at Biglerville, darkness halting the game after six innings. The game has been rescheduled for Wednesday, July 11.

Major League Stars PITCHING — Johnny Podres, Dodgers, and Dick Donovan, Indians. Podres struck out eight consecutive batters, tying the modern major league record, in a 5-1 first game triumph over Philadelphia. Donovan beat Baltimore 2-0 with a two-hitter, facing the minimum 27 batters.

BATTING — Eddie Mathews, Braves, drove in five runs—four with a grand slam homer—in 7-3 victory over St. Louis.

Podres Ties NL Strikeout Record Beating Phils As Dodgers Take League Lead

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

What's with Johnny Podres, the shrewd southpaw who can tie a modern major league record by striking out eight consecutive batters and hurl perfect ball for 6-2-3 innings, but is unable to pitch a full nine innings?

That was the puzzling problem confronting the Los Angeles Dodgers today after they regained first place in the National League Monday night by whipping Philadelphia 5-1 and 4-0 behind the sparkling pitching efforts turned in by Podres and Stan Williams.

Podres, whose medical history starts with a mysterious back ailment and runs through appendicitis, rib injury, pulled tendon and auto accident, tied the strikeout record set by Milwaukee's Max Surkont in 1953, and had a perfect game until two were out in the seventh.

CAN'T GO 9 INNINGS An inning later he was standing under a shower.

The 29-year-old left-hander's inability to go the distance now extends through 12 straight games. Off his 18-5 record last year, this figured to be his biggest season, but Monday night's triumph was only his fourth in 10 decisions.

Williams, on the other hand, did an about face and came through with a seven-hitter and his first complete game since April 30.

The twin triumphs, coupled with San Francisco's 8-3 loss to the Mets, put the Dodgers back on top again by a full game over the Giants.

Willie Mays' 22nd homer sent the Giants into a temporary 5-4 lead in the seventh inning, but the Mets came back with four unearned runs in the eighth to put it away. A bases-loaded walk to Felix Mantilla tied it before Gene Woodling cleared the bases with a double and gave the Mets their first victory over the team that last represented New York in the NL. The victory went to Ken MacKenzie (3-3), with Stu Miller (4-4) taking the loss.

Shut out on three hits for six innings by Colts' starter Hal Woodeshick (2-6), the Pirates broke it open with three runs in the seventh. Don Hoak's double drove in one run and Skinner's single knocked in the others. Skinner was ruled out after his hit because of interference by Pittsburgh coach Ron Northey, but the hit and runs were allowed to stand. That made Bob Friend (8-8) a winner.

GRAND SLAM HELPS Mathews' grand slam in the fifth inning off Ray Sadecki (5-3) paved the way for Lew Burdette (7-4) to record his seventh consecutive triumph with two-hit relief by Claude Raymond over the final 2-3 innings. Raymond got the call when Charley James hit a three-run homer in the seventh after Burdette had blanked the Cards on four hits—retiring 14 in a row at one stretch.

Ernie Banks powered the Cubs and Cal Koonce (7-2) to the first game decision over the Reds with four runs batted in on his 22nd homer and a two-run single. That tagged Bob Purkey (13-2) with the loss. The Reds came from behind to take the nightcap as Gordie Coleman hit a two-run homer in the last of the ninth off Don Elston (2-4). Elston had nailed the opener for Chicago by choking off a Cincinnati rally.

Moslems Celebrate Huge Independence Vote, Pay No Heed To Party Splits

ALGIERS (AP) — Algeria's Moslems triumphantly celebrated their hard-won independence to Monday, paying little heed to an open split between their leaders that promised more trouble for the new nation.

Throughout the country, Algerians flocked to the polls Sunday to vote a virtually unanimous "yes" to independence and collaboration with France. Many thousands of Europeans reluctantly joined in the vote.

Many towns registered not a single "no" vote. The final result was expected to be close to 99 per cent affirmative.

The vote set a sweeping seal of approval on the cease-fire agreement that ended the bitter, 7½-year Algerian war.

It did not yet make Algeria an independent nation legally. The separation from France will be formally decreed by President Charles De Gaulle when the final results of Sunday's referendum are known, probably within two or three days.

For jubilant Moslem millions, independence began when the polls closed. Crowds of young Moslem men and women cruised through the streets of the European quarters joyfully chanting nationalist slogans and waving immense green and white Algerian nationalist flags.

SETTLERS GLUM
In the European strongholds of Algiers and Oran, settlers watched the demonstrations with glum faces but no violent clashes were reported anywhere.

The entire referendum was held without a single incident of major violence. It seemed almost like a miracle of calm and reason. Less than a month ago, European Secret Army Organization killers held the main cities in a grip of terror and swore to bring the country down in blood and flames before they abandoned it to the Moslem majority.

The secret army's resistance collapsed with astonishing suddenness. One of its leaders, 22-year-old medical student Jean-Jacques Susini, even asked his followers to vote "yes" in the referendum.

LOYAL MOVIE FANS GATHER TO HONOR STAR

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Old movie fans never die, not if they are Jeanette MacDonald's.

Forty of the singing star's fans gathered here this week, coming from as far away as Australia. The double occasion: the 23rd wedding anniversary of Miss MacDonald and Gene Raymond; the 25th year of the fan club.

"I'm quite touched by it," said Miss MacDonald. "It was all very spontaneous on their part. It's really quite amazing. You don't see that kind of loyalty very often."

QUIT IN 1942
You surely don't, Miss MacDonald's major film career ended with "Cairo" in 1942. Except for a brief return for two films in 1948, she has been absent from the movie stages since then. Yet her fan clubs remain among the most active.

The 40 far flung fans started assembling here last week. The festivities for the celebration included a dinner at the Layan Restaurant, given by the Raymonds. The fans were treated to a visit to MGM studios, where Jeanette and Nelson Eddy reigned as the sweethearts of song in the 1930s. The group took a vote for which film they would most like to see. Winner was "Smiling Through," appropriate since it also starred Gene Raymond. Due to a legal complication with the authors, it is the only one of Miss MacDonald's films that has not appeared on television.

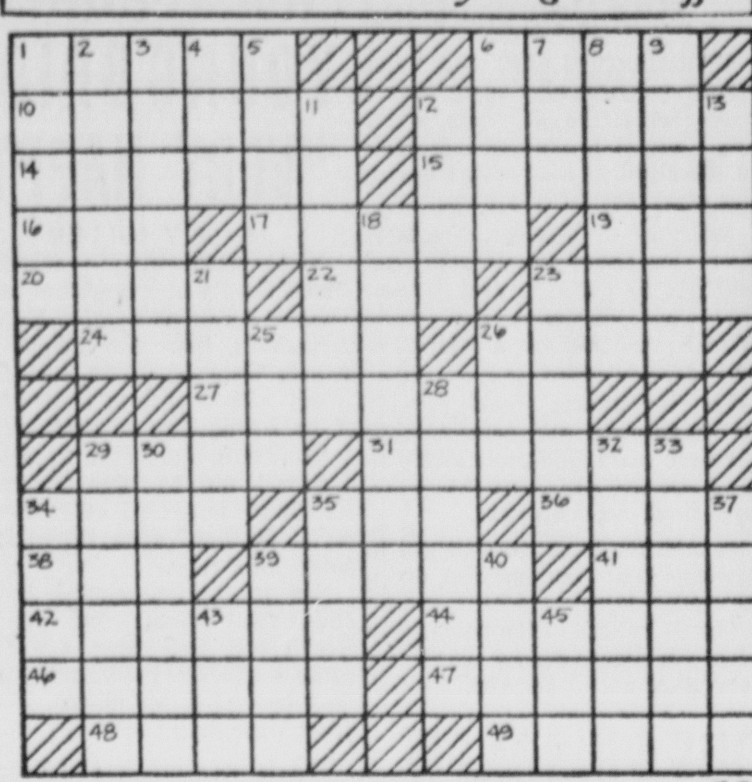

SEE MOVIES
The fans saw "Smiling Through," plus the "This Is Your Life" television show that starred Miss MacDonald. Today they are visiting the Bel-Air mansion which Jeanette and Gene have shared during their married life.

She is at a loss to account for the continuing loyalty of her fans. Far from waning, they are even growing in number, she reported. "We're getting a new influx because of television," she said. "A lot of young people are joining." The 25-year-old fan club is only one of hers. Another highly or she starred with Maurice Chevalier in 1934.

Naturally the fans are always plugging for a comeback. When producer Ross Hunter mentioned that he was considering Miss MacDonald for a Doris Day film, he was flooded with enthusiastic letters. "That makes me feel good," said the singer, who would welcome a return.

TAKEN INTO CUSTODY
Esperdy said the boy was taken into custody because of "an alleged violation of the immigration laws."

The case of Joseph Schumacher (Yossele is a nickname) started in 1957 in Jerusalem when his orthodox grandparents, Rabbi and Mrs. Nahman Starkes, took care of the boy because his immigrant parents did not have a proper apartment there.

When the parents demanded the child's return three years ago, the rabbi refused on grounds there would be a lack of religious discipline in the child's home. Then the child disappeared. Prolonged efforts in Israel and abroad failed to locate him.

Rabbi Starkes was jailed because he refused to give the police information concerning disappearance of the child, believed by Israeli authorities to have been kidnapped by Orthodox Jews.

SENATE WILL BEGIN DEBATE ON MEDICARE

By JOE HALL
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate begins debate today on one of the momentous issues of the 1962 session—health care for the aged financed under the Social Security System.

Assistant Democratic Leader Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota told a reporter he was confident a bipartisan proposal to establish such a system would clear the Senate by the end of the week, despite a Fourth of July break Wednesday.

Sponsors claimed a good margin for the health program and said a number of Republicans would vote for it. However, many Democrats remain opposed to Social Security financing.

ROUGH DAYS AHEAD
Even if the measure clears the Senate it would face rough days ahead. The House Ways and Means Committee has refused to act on the administration measure for more than a year and obstacles to House action would be formidable.

The House has arranged to pass an atomic energy authorization bill today or Tuesday, then adjourn for the holiday Wednesday with no business scheduled for the rest of the week.

A compromise sugar act extension bill, passed by the House Saturday, also comes up in the Senate today. The measure may be cleared for President Kennedy's signature by nightfall.

AS AN AMENDMENT
The Social Security health plan will be offered by Sen. Clinton P. Anderson, D-N.M., as an amendment to a House-passed bill amending the public assistance law.

Democratic leaders are anxious not to delay the House bill for long because a number of its provisions extend programs which expired Saturday midnight, the end of fiscal 1962.

Anderson's proposal, worked out after prolonged negotiation with five Republican senators who agree to co-sponsor it along with benefits as the administration bill Democrats, contains the same pushed earlier in this Congress.

These include hospitalization, nursing home care, home health services and outpatient hospital diagnostic services.

They would be financed by a one-fourth per cent increase in the Social Security payroll tax on both employers and employees and by raising the taxable base from $4,800 to $5,200 a year.

Boys State Ends With Inauguration

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP)—Keystone Boys State—a practical exercise in democratic citizenship—comes to a close Tuesday following the weekend inauguration of "state" officers.

"Gov." William H. Hildebrand of Harrisburg and 10 other officers were elected by the 379 teenage participants Saturday morning and inaugurated into office that night.

Hildebrand defeated Michael Basista also of Harrisburg, for the executive's chair.

The program for boys 15 to 18 years old is sponsored by the Pennsylvania American Legion.

TEXAN HOLDS AG OFFICIALS GAVE FAVORS

WASHINGTON (AP)—Texas Atty. Gen. Will Wilson says Undersecretary Charles Murphy and four other Agriculture Department officials should be fired for granting favors to Billie Sol Estes.

Wilson also expressed his view on a television program that Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman should resign for lack of prompt action in the Estes scandal.

An Agriculture Department spokesman declined comment.

MUSKIE DEPENDS
Sen. Edmund Muskie, D-Maine, a member of the Senate Permanent Investigations subcommittee, appeared on the program as defender of the Agriculture Department. He said his committee, which resumes its hearings in the Estes case Thursday, has found no evidence of favors from Estes to persons still in the Agriculture Department.

Estes, a Pecos, Tex., financier, is under state and federal fraud charges involving about $22 million in mortgages of fertilizer tanks which the FBI has said do not exist. Manipulations of his cotton acreage allotment and his storage of government grain also are under state and federal investigation.

Wilson, who has spent three months on the Estes inquiry, said: "I don't think there is any question at all that he built an empire on favors, largely in the

2 NEW AFRICAN NATIONS FACE TRIBAL FIGHT

USUMBURA, Burundi (AP)—Two new African nations, the Republic of Ruanda and Kingdom of Burundi, were born Sunday against a backdrop of tribal conflict that could turn the former U.N. trust territory into another Congo.

Independence ceremonies were held in Usumbura and Kigali, capitals of the territories which have been administered by Belgium as Ruanda and Urundi.

Leaders in both cities warned of possible future violence from the ancient animosity between the tall Watutsi and the more numerous Bahutu they once enslaved. It is feared that this may break out again after Belgian troops leave.

The two nations, with combined populations of five million and an area totaling about 20,000 square miles, start out with little money in their treasuries and few resources to sustain them.

President Kennedy sent congratulations to both nations and expressed U.S. willingness to work with them in the cause of freedom and peace.

The new nations received quick recognition from the Communist side.

Department of Agriculture.

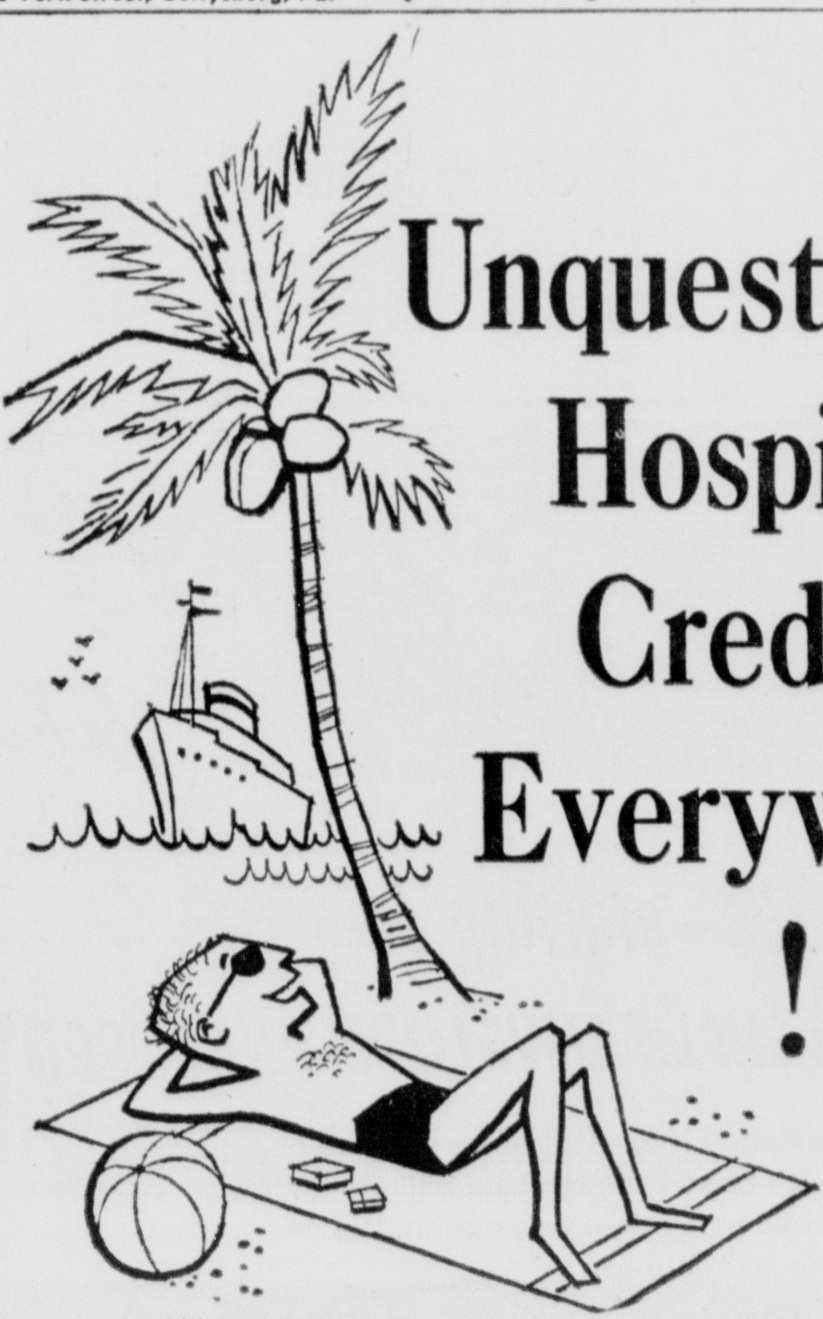

The favors included, he said, approval of the cotton allotment deals which he contended were known in Washington before charges were brought against Estes. He also listed movement of government grain to Estes elevators from the Midwest, and failure to increase from $700,000 to a million dollars the bond on grain Estes stored for the government.

Wilson said Murphy should be fired along with Horace Godfrey, administrator of the Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation Services (ASCS); John C. Bagwell, Agriculture Department general counsel; Joseph A. Moss, director of the ASCS cotton division; and Tom Miller, ASCS Southwest area director.

"LUMADRAMA" MAKES DEBUT ON WEDNESDAY

By JOHN TAYLOR

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A production new to the American scene makes its public debut Wednesday on the anniversary of the Declaration of Independence.

"Lumadrama," known abroad as "Son et Lumiere," will present "The American Bell," which deals with the Liberty Bell and the events leading up to the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

The recorded production was written by Pulitzer-Prize winning poet Archibald MacLeish. It features actor Fredric March as narrator and members of the Philadelphia Orchestra with music composed and conducted by David Amram.

"Lumadrama" dramatizes historic events at the site where they occurred through the effect of sound and lighting. There are no actors—merely voices. There are no props—merely a giant backdrop, which in the case of "The American Bell" was Independence Hall and, of course, the Liberty Bell itself.

The production was witnessed by some 900 newsmen and guests at a special press preview Monday night.

REACTION MIXED
The general audience reaction was mixed between boredom and enthusiasm. Some critics found the presentation lifeless or at best best slow-moving. Others uttered stunned amazement at the moving drama created by abstract visual and audio effects.

The drama included the sound of a horse and carriage trotting down cobbled Chestnut Street, a light in a window of the Hall, and the voice of the young liberal from Virginia, Thomas Jefferson, calling upon his colleagues in the Continental Congress to adopt his Declaration.

MANY STEEL PLANTS CLOSE

NEW YORK (AP)—More than the usual number of steel companies are shutting down whole plants this year for several-day periods around Independence Day. The Iron Age said today.

The metalworking weekly said the shutdowns are in line with a trend away from maintaining partial operations.

The magazine said two factors reinforcing the trend are the present order slump and provisions of the new wage contract effective last Sunday.

Under the latest contract with the United Steel Workers Union, steel companies must pay any man who reports for work wages equal to minimum pay for 32 hours.

This (requirement) is tied in with increased supplementary unemployment benefit payments and does not present a clear cause for shutdowns in all cases," The Iron Age said.

The over-all result, the magazine said, will be lower operations during July than might be expected considering lagging orders and normal seasonal factors.

Ex-Jaycee Prexy On Scranton Staff

HARRISBURG (AP)—William D. Johnson, former president of the Pennsylvania Junior Chamber of Commerce, was named a staff assistant today for the Scranton-for-Governor Campaign Committee.

A resident of Stroudsburg, the 36-year-old Johnson will join the committee immediately and is expected to do extensive traveling across the state on behalf of U.S. Rep. William W. Scranton, the GOP gubernatorial candidate.

Johnson served as president of the state Jaycees from May 1960 until May, 1962. He was the first Negro in the United States to head a state Jaycee organization.

Mine Inspection Program Steps Up

By VINCENT P. CAROCCI

HARRISBURG (AP)—The state is in the process of accelerating its mine inspection program as a means of combatting stream pollution in Pennsylvania, a Health Department official said today.

The acceleration will occur, said Russell Klingensmith, with the transfer of drainage inspection responsibilities from area field offices to regional offices of the department's Sanitary Engineering Division.

Klingensmith is chief of the division's mine drainage section.

The purpose of the inspections is to determine whether an operator is violating his mining permit. In the drainage field, the major concern is whether pollution results from the mine discharge.

NO STAND YET ON MEDICARE

HARRISBURG (AP)—U.S. Rep. William W. Scranton, Republican candidate for governor, has declined to commit himself on linking medical care for the aged with Social Security until legislation is on the floor of the House.

In a letter to the Pennsylvania AFL-CIO Scranton said that "even now" the U.S. Senate is working on a proposal.

Scranton's letter was in reply to one from Harry Boyer, president of the state AFL-CIO asking the GOP candidate to take a stand on President Kennedy's proposed medicare plan.

"When we know for certain what proposal will be before the House for a vote on the House floor, my position and vote on it will be clear and forthright, as it always is," he wrote.

Asked if he had agreed to oppose the King-Anderson Bill in Congress in return for financial support of his candidacy by the AMA in Pennsylvania, Scranton said:

"I have never promised or pledged a vote for or against any piece of legislation in return for support by any person or organization."

LONDON (AP)—Sir Winston Churchill, now recovered enough to sit up out of bed, was visited by his wife today in Middlesex Hospital.

Lady Churchill told reporters, "He is getting on very nicely." She said there is not yet any indication when Sir Winston's fractured thigh will be sufficiently healed to let him out of the hospital.

BYRD BLASTS CHAMBER CALL FOR TAX CUTS

By JOE HALL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, today denounced the U.S. Chamber of Commerce's call for a substantial income tax cut.

Byrd said the reduction would be inflationary and would mean a $15-billion federal deficit.

Byrd today joined the committee's senior Republican, Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., in assailing the chamber's proposal.

Williams told the Senate Monday that "while it may be politically popular at the time, the long-range inflationary results for Americans would be disastrous."

He declared that "I refuse to have any part of such irresponsible action as to endorse a tax cut in the face of our present deficit."

Byrd told a reporter he would have a detailed statement of the chamber's recommendation later.

EXPERTS REPORT
But he said that congressional tax experts already had advised him that the proposal would chop tax revenues by $9.5 billion a year instead of the maximum $7.5 billion estimated by chamber officials.

Byrd said he was convinced that even without a tax reduction there would be a federal deficit of $6 billion in the fiscal year which began Sunday.

Thus, Byrd said, the chamber's tax proposal would lead to a deficit of more than $15 billion.

BLASTS GOVERNORS
Williams aimed a broadside at Govs. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, a Republican, and Michael V. DiSalle of Ohio, and Edmund G. Brown of California, Democrats. He said he had noted they had joined "in the parade calling for an immediate tax reduction."

"Significantly, last week at the governors' conference we find that the governors were calling for more and more federal aid from Washington," Williams said.

"These governors, as well as the President and the United States Chamber of Commerce, know full well that a tax cut in the face of a continuous rise in government spending would lead to a staggering deficit. A deliberately planned deficit of such proportions at this time would be the most inflationary action this administration could take."

ADA JOINS ACT
The Americans for Democratic Action today joined the tax cut cry, demanding "a sharp reduction in income tax rates, concentrated in the lower brackets."

The ADA said a cut "has become a matter of immediate urgency to invigorate the national economy."

A U.S. Chamber spokesman opposed proposals for taxing U.S. firms' earnings on foreign investments, part of the administration's tax revision bill.

The chamber spokesman, Washington lawyer Walter Slovinski, complained today before the Senate Finance Committee that the foreign earnings tax proposals "are so drafted as to prevent U.S.-controlled foreign corporations from competing on equal terms with foreign-owned corporations on foreign soil."

In his prepared testimony, Slovinski said the provisions "are hastily drafted, stop-gap measures which leave many serious technical issues unresolved."

Congress Prayer OK Sought By Sponsor
WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. A. Willis Robertson, D-Va., has asked Congress to declare that it doesn't think official but voluntary prayers in public schools violate the Constitution.

This would put the House and Senate on record as disagreeing with the Supreme Court, which ruled last week that such prayers are unconstitutional.

Robertson proposed a concurrent resolution Monday and arranged to have it held for a week so other senators can join in sponsoring the measure.

The resolution wouldn't be binding on anyone even if it passed the Senate and House. Joint resolutions require the president's signature and have force of law. Concurrent resolutions do not.

Soblen Transfer Awaits Recovery

LONDON (AP)—Dr. Robert Soblen probably will not be well enough to travel to the United States "for at least another two or three days," a hospital spokesman announced today.

The fugitive spy who tried to commit suicide to escape a life sentence in the United States spent a fairly comfortable night and the improvement in his condition was maintained, the spokesman said.

Soblen, convicted of spying for the Soviet Union, forfeited $100,000 bail and fled to Israel last week. He slashed his wrists and stabbed himself in the stomach Sunday as an airplane returning him from Tel Aviv was winging over the English Channel.

Persistence indicates a strong will; obstinance a strong won't.

Lathers' Strike Has Been Settled

HARRISBURG (AP)—A union leader said Monday night that a nine-week strike of lathers, which had blocked construction projects in Harrisburg, was settled during the weekend.

Andrew C. Shepler, business agent for Local 429, Wood, Wire, and Metal Lathers, said a new three-year contract had been signed providing for a total 37½-cent an-hour raise.

The increments would provide an additional 11½ cents-an-hour the first year; 10½ cents additional the second year, and 15½ cents additional the third year.

In addition employers agreed to advancement and pension plan, Shepler said.

The 55 lathers in the union have been receiving $3.77½ cents an hour plus fringe benefits.

ONE PRISONER REMAINS ON WATER TOWER

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Number E-6966 remained alone on the catwalk of the Western State Penitentiary water tower today.

Charles Miller, a 32-year-old Negro serving a life sentence for murder, is the last of the 13 convicts who climbed the tower last week in protest of alleged brutalities.

Just how long Miller will stay on his perch is problematical. But Warden James Maroney said, "He is trying to prove he is the strongest man of them all and that he is a little more of a leader."

NEAR "RECORD"
The leader of the revolt was Robert Payne, 29, who descended the tower Monday morning, about four hours short of spending a full week on the tower.

Miller climbed the tower with 11 others a day after Payne went up, and will have to stay on the catwalk until tonight to break Payne's dubious record.

Warden Maroney said that aerial fire ladder would be used to bring Miller down if the convict becomes too weak and sick to climb down by himself.

IS "INCORRIGIBLE"
But Miller was far from being incapacitated. Despite the lack of food and water, Miller walked around the catwalk and shouted occasionally to passersby.

Payne, a parole violator tabbed as incorrigible by prison officials, complained of brutality in the prison's "home block," an isolated cell block used for punitive action. Prison officials said only Payne and one other of the 13 had ever been confined to the home block.

From the beginning, prison officials said they would listen to the prisoners' complaints when the men came down but would do nothing as long as the men were still up there.

"I'm sure we're proving our point," Warden Maroney said.

Lindsay Crosby Has Nervous Breakdown
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Lindsay Crosby, 24, will be hospitalized about a month with a nervous breakdown, says his uncle, Larry Crosby.

Lindsay, the youngest of singer Bing Crosby's four grown sons, entered St. John's Hospital in nearby Santa Monica Sunday.

Larry Crosby said Lindsay also is suffering from influenza and is under the care of Dr. Robert Buckeley, a psychiatrist.

"Lindsay suffered a nervous breakdown last February when his wife, Barbara, was ill. I guess he just got up too soon," said the uncle.

PABLOCASALS' YOUNG BRIDE "VERY HAPPY"

By JOY MILLER

NEW YORK (AP)—Wherever Pablo Casals is, a beautiful young woman is always nearby. Even at rehearsals, there she sits, a rapturous little smile on her face, ready with a gesture of approval if he should turn toward her.

"I like to be there, to help if I can; if not, to listen and enjoy it. We're separated only when I go to market," says Marta Montanez de Casals.

She is the grave-eyed Puerto Rican girl Casals took as his fourth wife five years ago amid some worldwide headshaking over May-December marriages.

HE'S VIGOROUS 85
The famous cellist and conductor is a vigorous 85. Marta—everyone uses the diminutive form of her name—will be 26 in November.

"I never think of the difference in our ages," she says. "Our life is so full, so happy, so wonderful. Once people see us, they understand—I hope they do. I wish many others were as happy as we are."

Small, graceful, classic-featured Marta has a serenity and dignity that make her seem more mature than her 2½ decades. She dresses simply—"My husband and I like everything conservative"—and attracts as little attention as possible to herself.

MET IN 1954
Her conversation, which centers around her husband as often as she is able to swerve it that way, indicates their closeness.

Marta met short, stocky, balding Casals in 1954, when she won a $1,000 prize to study cello under his direction at Prades, France, where he conducts an annual music festival. For four years before that she had studied cello in New York City, and learned excellent English. She also speaks Spanish, French and Catalan.

"MORE THAN CONTENT"
She seldom plays the cello now. "I have more important things to do. I have no personal aspirations, in the sense of doing anything myself. I am content to be just his wife. More than content."

"Being with him is the most wonderful education, in every respect—a privilege. I consider myself very lucky, but lucky is not the word. It's not deep enough."

When Casals is not giving concerts or conducting classes at music festivals somewhere around the world, the couple live in a house by the sea in San Juan, Puerto Rico. Every morning they go for a walk along the beach.

Leaders Say New Rebels Fight Castro

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—An anti-Castro unit leader says 20 of his men are fanning new fires of rebellion in Cuba after a successful landing in restless Matanzas Province.

Frank Florini, an American, said the all-Cuban group got ashore from a boat Monday. He called the men "specially trained guerrillas who are members of the international anti-Communist brigade."

"We expect to hear from them," the Norfolk, Va., native said without elaboration.

The mission of the 20 guerrillas he said is "to support and extend anti-Castro uprisings in (the Matanzas) area" west of Havana.

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. (AP)—Girl Scout officials are continuing their investigation to determine the cause of illness of 10 girls at the Wildwood Camp on Harvey's Lake. The camp was closed voluntarily Friday and reopened Monday when an investigation by the State Health Department showed the camp's water supply was safe.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Refugees and freedom fighters from eleven Communist countries were honored Monday in ceremonies at Independence Hall. The event, held in connection with the city's observance of Freedom Week, was attended by refugees from Cuba, Communist China, Poland, Romania, Albania, Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia, Estonia, Hungary, Latvia and Lithuania.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—William H. Roberts, bishop of the Royal Priesthood Holy Church here, has been enjoined from engaging in, or "pretending to a knowledge of," the practice of medicine. The injunction was handed down Monday by a Common Pleas Court after Roberts was accused of treating a five-year-old girl with a congenital heart condition by giving her a mixture of olive oil and alcohol to drink.

SLATEFORD, Pa. (AP)—Mrs. Geraldine Uddin, 22, of Bellmawr, N.J., was killed and her husband and daughter seriously injured in a two-car crash Monday on alternate Route 611 near Delaware Gap.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The alarm sounded Monday on the Fire Department's Box 1776. That's the alarm used only for blazes at Independence Hall. Firemen found that a defective fluorescent light had sent smoke pouring from the basement of the east wing. Use of water was not necessary and the smoke soon cleared away. There was no damage to the structure.

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP)—Gov. David Lawrence of Pennsylvania, hosting the governors conference here, said Monday President Kennedy may make as many as three campaign appearances in Pennsylvania for the fall election. He said "the popularity of President Kennedy is just as great as it ever was."

METERS CROOKED
MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Mayor Robert King High was right, Miami's parking meters are crooked—at least some of them.

High followed up a complaint from a taxpayer that a meter had not given him full time and was shorted. High demanded the meters be checked.

The parking department said Monday 8 of 122 meters checked so far were defective.

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Newlywed Mrs. Ronald Francis Currier must make a formal written report informing her father of her marriage.

Her father, school Supt. O. Perry Walker, gave his daughter away upon her marriage to Dr. Ronald Currier, but since Mrs. Currier is a teacher she must comply with school board regulations and inform the superintendent of her marriage.

Union Won't OK New Agreement

HARRISBURG (AP)—Some 400 union employees of Capitol Products, Inc., continued their opposition today to a contract negotiated between management and the union's bargaining committee.

The employees refused on Friday to ratify the agreement worked out between the company and Local 5401 of the United Steelworkers. The old contract expired Saturday.

The firm manufactures aluminum products such as storm windows and doors.

Station Crumbles Going To New Site

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—The darndest thing happened while Rocky Ridge firemen were moving their fire station.

It fell to pieces.

Volunteer firemen in suburban Rocky Ridge raised the station from its foundation and got it onto a flat bed trailer.

Fire station and truck had just started moving when the building collapsed.

The firemen are now moving their station piece by piece to the new site where it will be rebuilt.

NEW YORK (AP)—John Rigney, 25, explained to police that he ascended to the top of a 200-foot construction crane because he wanted to demonstrate that high places could be climbed without falling.

His explanation came after he plunged from the crane into the Harlem River Monday night and had to be rescued by two patrolmen. The Bronx steelworker was taken to the psychiatric ward of Bellevue Hospital.

PA. JOBLESS NAMED AS TOP ISSUE IN FALL

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Unemployment will be the key issue in the state's November election, says U. S. Rep. William W. Scranton, the Republican candidate for governor.

Scranton told a news conference Monday:

"No matter what happens to the economy between now and November, unemployment will be the A No. one issue. The economy cannot recover enough in that time."

Scranton criticized Gov. Lawrence's administration on economic matters, claiming it has done nothing to solve the state's unemployment problem.

He added that industry has found Lawrence's administration unattractive.

ANSWERS CHARGES
"Business and industry," the 44-year-old congressman said, "has no confidence in the Pennsylvania Democratic administration in comparison to its confidence in neighboring states, such as New Jersey and New York."

Scranton said the Democrats are now soft-pedaling the claim that he lacks governmental experience since "they have learned that I am knowledgeable about state-wide matters."

"For that matter," he continued, "I will readily admit that I lack such experience as that displayed in Philadelphia by (Richardson) Dilworth when mayor. I refer to the scandals there. I also lack the experience displayed by Lawrence in Harrisburg, who has been unable to do anything about unemployment."

Dilworth, the former mayor of Philadelphia, is the Democratic gubernatorial candidate.

CROWLEY EYES EXTENSION OF COURT FINDING

By RAYMOND J. CROWLEY
WASHINGTON (AP)—Now that the dust has settled a bit after the explosive argument over the Supreme Court's prayer decision, it may be in order to examine the decision's effects.

Just what does it do and what doesn't it do?

It does not mean:

NOT OUTLAWED
That "In God We Trust" will disappear from the coins in your pocket.

That "In God is our trust" will vanish from the nation's official anthem, "The Star-Spangled Banner";

That the Supreme Court ever will have to stop crying: "God save the United States and this honorable court";

COURT'S MEANING
The decision does mean:

That no government official or group of officials anywhere in the United States has the legal right to make up an official prayer and sanction its use in schoolrooms.

The decision is at once narrow in scope and broad in possible implications. It was based on the constitutional prohibition against laws "respecting an establishment of religion."

NO OFFICIAL PRAYERS
The court majority said this prohibition "must at least mean that in this country it is no part of the business of government to compose official prayers for any group of the American people to recite as part of a religious program carried on by government."

This sentence, as it goes along, seems to limit more and more the scope of the decision. And it does. But note the two words "at least."

POSSIBLE EXTENSION
They imply that the establishment clause, in the opinion of the court majority, may forbid a lot of other things the justices do not mention because they were not up for a decision.

What about the reading of the Bible in public schools, for example? The decision does not mention this. But since there are many different versions of the Bible, not to speak of the Koran and other religious books, who is to select the one to be read?

A U.S. Embassy spokesman said the Leathernecks "will still school board members, or persons designated by them?

Would Bible reading in public schools get by the Supreme Court as presently constituted? It would seem not, unless the Bible were read as part of a course in literature or history. (The court decision noted that "the history of man is inseparable from the history of religion.")

EDUCATION AID
Studying the attitude of the present court there seems little chance that any broad program of federal aid to education in parochial or other church-connected schools would get by, if enacted.

But the majority opinion did say it was not knocking religious language out of "The Star-Spangled Banner," or interfering with many other "manifestations in our public life of belief in God."

"Such patriotic or ceremonial occasions," the majority said, "bear no true resemblance to the unquestioned religious exercise" which New York school authorities inaugurated in the schools and which was struck down by the tribunal.

Many religious people are trying to find ways to preserve prayer in public schools. Some, like Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., have suggested that each school day begin "with a noncompulsory opportunity for a period of silent prayer and meditation."

In other words, the teacher might say: "Now boys and girls, there will be a moment of quiet, during which you may pray if you want to."

MARINE UNIT IS PULLED OUT OF THAILAND

BANGKOK, Thailand, (AP)—The United States is pulling 1,000 Marines out of Thailand because of "general lessening of tension" along the Laotian border. Another 1,200 Marines and 3,000 Army troops are remaining.

The U.S. Defense Department announced the withdrawal Sunday and said President Kennedy had authorized it. The announcement said more Marines might be withdrawn soon, depending on the situation.

PRAYER BAN IS CONTROVERSY STORM CENTER

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The U.S. Supreme Court decision banning official prayers in public schools evoked both dissent and praise in Sabbath sermons. One minister called it "proper, fair and correct" while another ascribed to the court a philosophy that "seeks to quarantine religion."

Some took the middle ground. Among them, was the Rev. Dr. Charles D. Kean of the Episcopal Church of the Epiphany of Washington D.C. who said the court's ruling was "neither a great victory for religious liberty nor an attack upon the religious traditions of our country."

"The Supreme Court decision did not say religious devotions of a voluntary nature may never be held in public schools," he observed in a sermon Sunday.

COURT DECISION
Last Monday, the court ruled that a 22-word prayer drafted by the New York State Board of Regents for recitation at the start of each school day was unconstitutional.

The prayer reads: "Almighty God, we acknowledge our dependence upon Thee, and beg Thy blessing upon us, our parents, our teachers and our country."

"FAIR AND PROPER"
Dr. E. S. James, editor of the Baptist Standard and a Southern Baptist leader, called the court's decision "proper, fair and correct," adding the school prayer "could not hurt anyone."

However, Dr. J. Richard Sneed

be in a position to move back quickly if necessary." They were rushed to Thailand from units of the U.S. 7th Fleet in the western Pacific. Vice Adm. William Shoeh, the fleet commander, said they would rejoin the fleet units in the Philippines, Okinawa and Guam.

The U.S. task force was rushed to Thailand in mid-May after the Red rebels in Laos broke a cease-fire and advanced nearly to the border of Thailand.

The Communist guerrillas did not press their offensive, however, and 11 days ago the three political factions in Laos reached an agreement and formed a coalition government under neutralist Prince Souvanna Phouma.

of the First Methodist church in Los Angeles told his congregation that the ruling will produce a more revolutionary effect on U.S. society than Karl Marx ever could.

He said the court's philosophy "seeks to quarantine religion."

CARDINAL CUSHING
Richard Cardinal Cushing, speaking at Gloucester, Mass., in the annual blessing of the fishing fleet, said the decision "broke the hearts of millions and millions of people who live in captive nations behind the Iron and Bamboo curtains, whose only hope is in God and our own beloved country."

"The only thing communism fears is religion, and religion is the only thing that can save the world from being dominated by the butchers and tyrants of the Communist world," Cardinal Cushing said.

In sermons Saturday, a number of New York rabbis said the decision has helped the cause of religion, not hindered it. Some described the prayer involved as being so neutral that it is meaningless and cannot help religion.

KENNEDY COUNSEL
The Rev. Dr. Edward E. Klein of the Stephen Wise Free Synagogue in New York City urged that citizens follow President Kennedy's counsel to support the decision and accept it as a challenge to cultivate prayer at home and intensify religious education in synagogue and church.

Some churchmen said a larger reason for alarm were predictions that the ruling may lead to elimination of all Bible reading and religious observances from the public schools.

The Rev. Dr. John M. Krumm, Columbia University chaplain, said the prediction "justifiably causes alarm to churchmen who would regard an education from which all references to the role of religion in the formation of our history and culture had been removed as a distorted and inadequate education."

The Rev. Dr. Lawrence L. Dargun, preaching at the Broadway Congregational church in New York City, told worshippers the court's ruling "deserves general applause."

"But let us be clear about the substance of the decision," he added. "The court has not decided 'against God' in the United States or in the public schools. On the contrary, it has decided that the reality of God can neither be guaranteed nor denied by action of the state."

Knowledge and timber should not be used much until they are well seasoned.

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER
EXHIBITION POSTURE. Most of us girls fret over figure problems when swim suit season rolls around. But few of us give a thought to posture, and there's where we err.

Well-carried, your figure appears far trimmer than it may be and more graceful, too. On the other hand your proportions could be ideal and yet see frumpy, if you are in the habit of slumping.

Actually the slump is the most prevalent exhibition of postural faults. Better check to see if it's yours!

The telling marks are a jutting chin, an outward curve of the back, rounded shoulders and arms that dangle ahead of the body. In making your check, remember that some slumpers are able to stand fairly erect when they really try. They cannot hold the position for long, however.

To hold an erect stance without effort, an habitual slumper has to strengthen her shoulder muscles. The primary source of the trouble is in the shoulders. A very simple routine, repeated ten times daily, not only tones up the muscles but also establishes the correct carriage of the shoulders. Here's what you do:

Sit on the floor with your back against a wall, with your arms stretched forward at shoulder level. Starting with your head, slowly curl your spine until you can touch your ankles with your fingertips. Then gradually uncurl until every inch of your back lies flat against the wall.

Now note the position of your shoulders—how they fall neither backward nor forward of the body. That's the pose to strive for. When you can maintain it, graceful carriage will soon become one of your assets.

To check or improve on your inability, send for "CLUES TO GOOD CARRIAGE," my leaflet giving complete instructions on shoes, stockings and walking techniques that enhance both carriage and legline. WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has signed into law bills raising the public debt limit to $308 billion and extending for three years his authority to curb trade with unfriendly nations.

The administration had requested an $8-billion increase in the debt ceiling in order to give the Treasury sufficient flexibility to finance government operations during the fiscal year that began Sunday.

The Continental or Grand Union flag had 13 alternate red and white stripes with the British Union Jack in the upper left corner.

BIGGEST SHOT MAY EXPLODE ON JULY 4TH

HONOLULU (AP)—The United States will make a third try at exploding its biggest and highest atmospheric nuclear shot of the current Pacific series on Wednesday night, the Fourth of July, above Johnston Island.

A spokesman for Joint Task Force 8, which is conducting the tests at Johnston and British-owned Christmas Island, said the blast is scheduled between 4 a.m. Thursday and 7:30 a.m., Eastern Standard Time.

Washington reports have indicated the explosion will bring the Pacific series near conclusion. The reports said the series is about 85 per cent completed.

BEGAN APRIL 25
The test comes within the two or three months mentioned by President Kennedy in March when he announced the decision to resume nuclear testing. The series, tagged Operation Dominic, began April 25.

Officially, the high-altitude device will have the explosive force of more than a million tons of TNT, the power scientists call a megaton. Unofficially, it is expected to be up to 50 times as powerful as the nuclear warhead dropped on Hiroshima.

The explosion is expected to go off at an altitude of about 200 miles.

The first high shot attempt, June 4, was aborted when the Thor missile's tracking system failed. The second attempt, on June 19, was scrubbed when the Thor hull overheated and collapsed. Parts of the second rocket fell back on Johnston Island, slightly injuring two civilian technicians.

The blast may knock a hole in the ionosphere, a layer of space particles which reflect radio waves, and disrupt communications throughout the Pacific for hours.

RACKETS KING IS KILLED BY SUNDAY BOMB

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—A powerful explosive charge blew William Billy Naples, 35, to his death Sunday night as the rackets figure sat in a car inside a North Side garage with a loaded pistol in his pocket.

His death came two years after gunmen in an automobile shot and killed his brother, S. Joseph Sandy Naples, 52, whom police rated a Youngstown rackets kingpin.

STILL UNSOLVED
That crime is still unsolved, as is the auto-bomb death of James Vincent DeNiro, 39, another racket figure, on a downtown street last July 17, the last previous racket killing here.

Billy Naples, a suave-mannered man with an arrest record going back to an assault charge in 1951, had succeeded his brother, Sandy, as operator of the center sandwich shop here.

His wife told police he left their home on fashionable Carlotta street on the North Side with another man about 45 minutes before the explosion occurred, shortly after 10 p.m.

The blast shattered the front of the 6-year-old car parked in a garage and collapsed the garage roof on the car. It was midnight before Naples' body was extricated and identified. He was blown partly through the rear window of the vehicle.

An empty shotgun was found in

Eisenhower Says He Will Back State GOP

HARRISBURG (AP)—Dwight D. Eisenhower says he will make "abundantly clear" his support of the Republican statewide ticket in Pennsylvania.

U. S. Rep. James E. Van Zandt, the GOP candidate for U. S. senator, says he is only too eager to receive the endorsement.

These sentiments were contained in an exchange of telegrams between the two politicians, the text of which was released Saturday.

The telegrams concerned a statement by Otis B. Morse, Democratic state chairman, quoting Van Zandt as saying it would be a mistake for Eisenhower to campaign for the ticket.

Van Zandt wired the former president that the declaration was "entirely without foundation," and that he is "eagerly anticipating" Eisenhower's "assistance" in the campaign.

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—Welfare Secretary Abraham A. Ribicoff's resignation from the Cabinet is expected to be on President Kennedy's desk within the next two weeks.

Ribicoff says he hopes the resignation will clear the way for a full-scale campaign by him for the U. S. Senate on the Democratic ticket.

the driveway a few feet from the garage, and police said later it had been blown from the trunk of the car and that a paper bag full of shells for it also was found.

6 MURDERERS SURRENDER AT SAN QUENTIN

SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (AP)—Six condemned murderers saved their way out of the cells on San Quentin Prison's death row early Monday, clubbed two guards and held them hostage for three hours before surrendering meekly after prison officials lobbed tear gas into the cell block.

The guards were hospitalized with head injuries after their release.

Associate Warden Dale B. Frady, in an interview, said the prisoners had saved their bars over a period of time and disguised the cuts.

SAW IS FOUND
Frady said the hack saw they had somehow smuggled into the row was found after their surrender.

Shortly after 1 a.m. one of the cons jammed a toilet. Guard G. L. Deatrick went to see what was wrong. As he returned to the cell area, he was struck from behind with a sawed off bar.

The other guard, Sgt. R. R. Kardell was in the death row office at the end of the block. The convicts used Deatrick's keys to get into the office.

RAIL SYSTEMS NEED MERGERS

By W. B. RAGSDALE JR.
WASHINGTON (AP) — Board Chairman James M. Symes of the Pennsylvania Railroad said today that Eastern railroads "are actually looking down the road to nationalization."

"To my mind that is the most dangerous monopoly of all, a subsidized nationalized railroad system," said Symes in testimony prepared for the Senate Antitrust and Monopoly Subcommittee.

"One railroad, the New Haven, has already gone into bankruptcy and others are close behind," he said, adding:

NEED MERGER

"A series of bankruptcies could very well cause nationalization of all railroads. Unless railroads in deep trouble are permitted to use consolidations and mergers as self help along lines urged on us for years by the Senate Subcommittee on Surface Transportation, the public is likely to see the very ultimate in monopoly, government ownership and operation."

Symes' road, the Pennsylvania, seeks to merge its operations with the New York Central System.

Symes, opposing a bill by Subcommittee Chairman Sen. Estes Kefauver, D-Tenn., to limit the authority of the Interstate Commerce Commission to approve such mergers, said Eastern roads could save as much as $200 million in operating costs annually through presently planned mergers.

NAME ANDRADE BRAZIL HEAD

BRASILIA, Brazil (AP) — The Chamber of Deputies today approved Senate President Auro Soares de Moura Andrade to be Brazil's premier, ending a week's government crisis.

Andrade, 46, a conservative and one of Brazil's youngest senators, was approved by a 222-51 vote after a six-hour session.

Andrade told the chamber he would make the battle against inflation the first order of business for his government. He also vowed to work for agrarian, banking and tax reforms but said Congress would have to pass the necessary laws.

He said he would retain the foreign policy of the last government headed by Premier Tancredino Neves and would maintain all of Brazil's international commitments.

Neves' Cabinet resigned June 26 so some of its members could qualify as candidates in the October congressional election.

The Chamber of Deputies last Thursday rejected President Joao Goulart's first nominee, controversial Foreign Minister Francisco San Tiago Dantas, who was accused of following a soft policy toward the Castro regime in Cuba.

ICC Will Study "Piggyback" Use

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Interstate Commerce Commission has decided to take a thorough look at the growing use of "piggyback" freight transportation involving the movement of loaded highway trailers aboard railroad cars and certain water carriers.

In ordering a hearing Monday, the commission invited carriers, shippers and other interested parties to submit their views by Sept. 5 and set a pre-hearing conference before two commissioners for Oct. 9.

Ambassador John S. Rice Will Join Dutch July 4 To Celebrate 180 Years Of Fine Diplomatic Relations

On July 4 John S. Rice, ambassador to The Netherlands, will join the Dutch to celebrate 180 years of formal diplomatic relations between The Netherlands and the United States. This year also marks the 20th anniversary of the date when the two governments raised the status of their respective diplomatic missions from legations to embassies.

Ambassador Rice operates from a new Embassy building, completed July 4, 1959. The structure, designed by Marcel Breuer, a world famous architect, faces the Lange Voorhout, which is lined with buildings of every period from the 17th to the 20th century. It consists of two wings, at right angles to each other. Between the wings are an auditorium, a parking space, a garden and the entrance to the underground garage. The office of the ambassador looks out on the Lange Voorhout, as do most of the other Embassy offices. Additional offices and a cafeteria face the Korte Voorhout. This wing is largely devoted to the U.S. Information Service, including the library, entrance to the auditorium, the cultural section, press, film, radio-TV, and other operations of USIS.

On the spot where the Government Printing Office in The Hague is located stood the first legation building abroad owned by the United States. John Adams, first minister plenipotentiary to Holland, bought the building in 1782 from Countess van Quadt van Wyckraadt. It was used as a legation building until 1830. A commemorative plaque in the hall of the Government Printing Office marks the initial use.

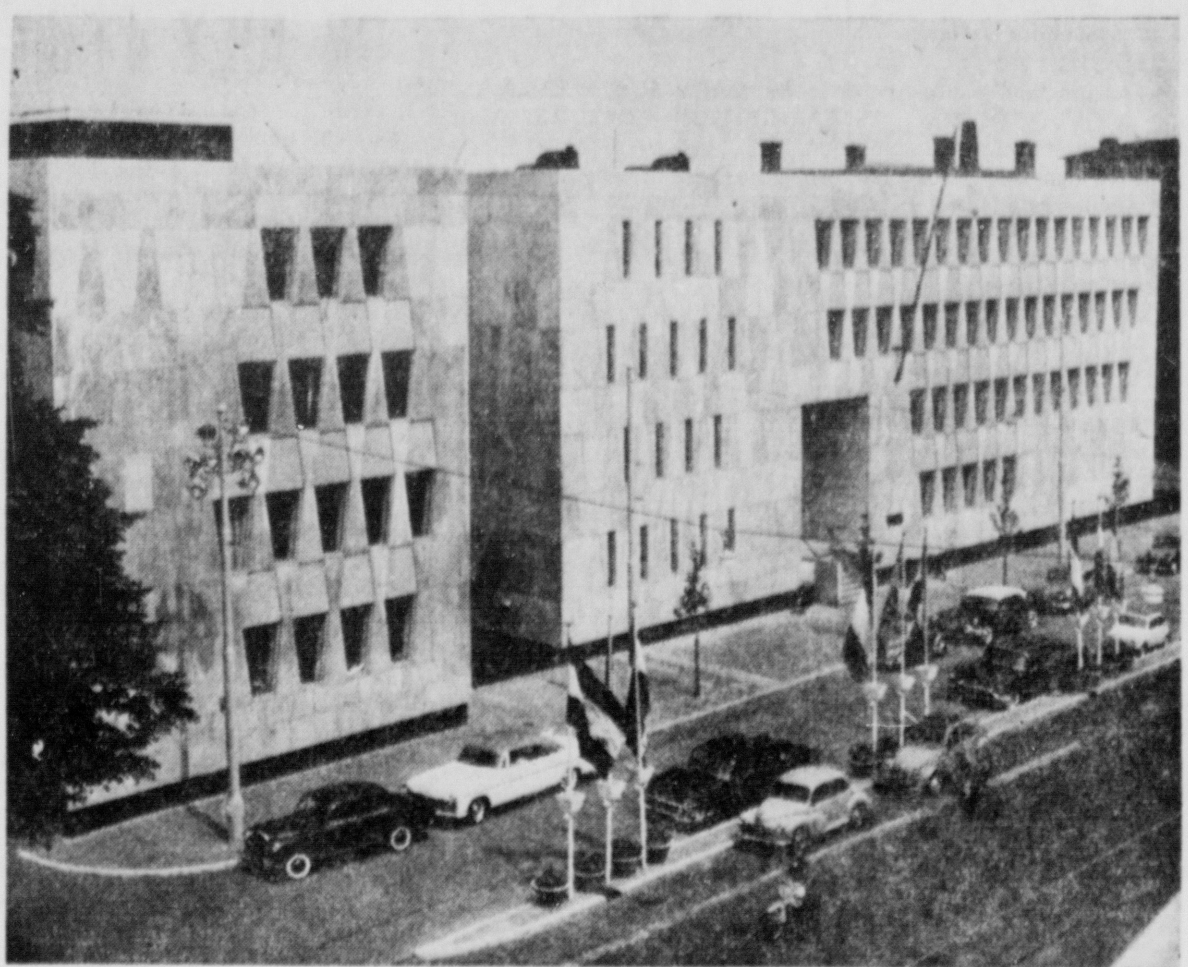

The residence of Ambassador Rice is at 4 Tobias Asserlaan, one of the most distinguished residential areas of The Hague, near the Peace Palace. The mansion, in use since 1949, is surrounded by beautiful lawns and has a rock terrace overlooking a small lake. Many governments have chosen this section as the site of their chancelleries.

Ambassador Rice, a native of Adams County and a Gettysburg resident, was a state senator for two terms, Democratic nominee for governor, a member of the Liquor Control Board and secretary of the Department of property and Supplies before his appointment by President John F. Kennedy as ambassador to The Netherlands.

He also served as chairman of the State Democratic Committee and as chairman of the Pennsylvania Commission for the 75th Anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Two pre-historic megalonyx skeletons are being sent to the Carnegie Museum in Pittsburgh for treatment to preserve them. State officials announced Monday the finding of the skeletons in a cave near Livingston, Tenn., in the Cumberland Mountains. Robert E. Hershey, state geologist, said the megalonyx was an animal about the size of an ox which inhabited North America at least 8,000 years ago.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vincent McGeehan of Ashland, Pa., is one of 11 young Americans who will leave San Francisco today for two years of volunteer teaching and agricultural work in South Viet Nam, the Agency for International Development announced. McGeehan will teach science. The 11 volunteers will join 25 other Americans now working in specialized fields in South Viet Nam under a program conducted by International Voluntary Services.

Israeli Mother Claims Son Abducted 3 Years Ago In Religious Fight

joy, a small, dark-haired Israeli mother has been reunited with the 10-year-old son she hadn't seen since he was abducted three years ago in a religious dispute.

Ida Schuhmacher planned to take the child back to his homeland as soon as possible after U.S. immigration officials turned him over to her today. She said she wasn't interested in prosecuting the religious zealots who spirited him away.

"I am only interested in getting my child," she said.

RECOGNIZES SON

Mrs. Schuhmacher, 37, arrived from Israel by plane Monday night and was taken immediately to an immigration office to see her son, Yosef, whom she calls "Yossele."

They recognized each other immediately an official said. Mrs. Schuhmacher rushed to embrace the youth, crying over and over in Hebrew "My boy! My boy!"

Peter Esperdy, district director of the Immigration Service, said the boy had been found Saturday at the home of Rabbi Sanzli Gertner, a member of the ultra-Orthodox Hasidic sect, in Brooklyn. The youth had been living there under the name of Jacob (Yankele)

Esperdy said the Gertners neither disputed the identification of the boy as the missing Yosef Schuhmacher nor claimed the right to keep him.

Mrs. Schuhmacher put the boy in the care of her grandparents, Rabbi and Mrs. Nahman Starkes, in Jerusalem in 1957 because the Schuhmachers' recent immigrants to Israel from the Soviet Union, did not have a proper apartment at the time.

When they asked for him back three years ago, the rabbi refused on grounds there would not be enough Orthodox discipline in the home. Then the child disappeared.

CHICAGO (AP) — Dr. Nicholas Cheronis, 66, an educator and authority in the field of organic chemistry, was killed Monday in an automobile accident. Cheronis recently retired from his post as head of the chemistry department of Brooklyn (N.Y.) College. He was born in Athens, Greece, and came to the United States in 1911.

DETROIT (AP) — The Rev. A. Patrick Madgett, associate professor of theology at the University of Detroit, died Monday after a long illness. Father Madgett, who taught at the university for 20 years, was born in Chicago.

Philly Prepares For Kennedy Visit

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — City officials today made final preparations for President Kennedy's visit here Wednesday to address the National Governors' Conference.

Kennedy will make the trip here from Washington by helicopter. He will land near Independence Hall. After his address at Independence Hall he will fly to the Camp David, the presidential retreat in the Catoctin Mountains, where he will join Mrs. Kennedy and the couple's two children.

The governors are meeting in Hershey, Pa., but they will visit Philadelphia on July 4 to hear the President. The governors will make the 100-mile trip in an 189-car motorcade.

Thousands were expected to fill the Independence Mall area to hear the first Independence Day address by a president at the historic site in almost 50 years.

Meanwhile, the Weather Bureau said fair to partly cloudy weather is likely for the Eastern section of Pennsylvania but forecast considerable cloudiness with scattered showers in the west and central portions.

NEW YORK (AP) — John Clark, Pennsylvania, was named Monday to the second team of the 1962 All-Star Collegiate Lacrosse Team. Andy Lockhart, Penn State, was named to the third team by the U. S. Lacrosse Coaches Association.

POLICE HUNT MISSING GIRL

HILLTOWN, Pa. (AP) — State police said today that 10-year-old Theresa N. Cahill has been missing since 5 p.m. Monday when playmates reported they saw her get into an auto with a strange man.

The police sent out a 13-state alarm, but added that they are not calling it a kidnapping. A state trooper said, "This one really has us puzzled."

They said the girl, daughter of Mrs. Alma Cahill, was last seen walking home along the Hilltown Pike with three playmates near this Bucks County community.

The three, who were not identified, told the police a black convertible stopped and a man they had not seen before told Theresa her mother had asked him to drive her home, about 3/4 of a mile away.

Police said the other children could give no explanation for Theresa's getting in the car.

Her mother, they said, told them that she did not ask anyone to pick up her daughter and did not know anyone that fit the description the children gave.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pennsylvania's two senators split Monday as the Senate approved 54-12 the compromise sugar bill. Sen. Hugh Scott, R, voted with the majority. Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D, voted against approval.

Gettysburg, Pa.

Dear Sirs:
While in Gettysburg for the state convention of the National League of Postmasters I purchased a copy of your visitors' supplement The Gettysburg Times at the Wills House, I believe. On the front page is a picture of Gutzon Borglum's North Carolina monument. Would it be possible to get some more of these from you?

If you can, send six copies and the invoice which will be paid as soon as it arrives. I want them for a few of our teachers. The paper is well done and will be of great help in presenting the story of the Battle of Gettysburg to their pupils. It brings out so well the part played at Gettysburg to keep our nation whole and free. Our young folks want to know the story.

Thank you and God bless you.
Sincerely yours,
Sister Mary I. Hoy

O'Connor Lauds Use Of Salk Vaccine

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Basil O'Connor, president of the National Foundation, says Salk vaccine has reduced polio 97 per cent over the seven years it has been used in this country.

O'Connor, here for the fifth International Conference on Health and Health Education, made the statement Monday during an interview in which he commented on another report.

Dr. Bohdan Ganicky, chief of the Health Education Department of the Czechoslovakian Ministry of Health, had told delegates to the conference earlier that experience in his country showed what he termed the superiority of the Sabin live virus vaccine.

BETHLEHEM, Pa. (AP) — William Bland, 31, of Greenville, N. C., was killed Monday when his rig went out of control on a hill in nearby Lower Saucon Township, struck the front porch of a hotel and came to rest on top of a parked station wagon, police said.

ROCK HUDSON BLASTS STUDIO STAR CRITICS

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — "I'm incensed!" exclaimed Rock Hudson.

Rock, one of the world's film box office favorites, was angry at recent critics — most of them anonymous studio spokesmen — who have predicted the Hollywood star system is through.

Their reasons are it is too expensive and places too much power in the hands of capricious actors and actresses.

FIGHTS BACK

Hudson, one of the first stars to fight back publicly, spoke his mind at a recent luncheon at a theatrical haunt here. He expressed particular annoyance at criticism blaming stars for running up costs on two of history's most expensive movies — "Mutiny on the Bounty," and "Cleopatra." "It's nothing but sensationalism — the way Marlon Brando and Elizabeth Taylor have been abused as persons," he fumed. "The salary of a star isn't the prohibitive factor. It's studio errors that usually run up the bills. Then someone wants to put the blame on the star."

PUBLIC MAKES SYSTEM

"Well, there are a lot of people who are against the star system — but most of them are not stars. I don't see anything against the star system."

"In any case, it is the public that makes the system. The people pick their own favorites."

With that blast out of his system, the big, good-natured ex-letter carrier from Winnetka, Ill., relaxed and pitched into his steak.

Rock, who now lets other postmen deliver his money to the bank, reminisced about some of the other jobs he had held before he soared to success as a movie actor. He was a short order cook, soda jerk, piano mover, railway expressman, butcher and grocery

FUN A COOK

"I think I had most fun being a short order cook," he said. "I still enjoy cooking at home—when I can show off."

"Every job has its pros and cons. The main pro about film acting for me is that, if I have to work, it's the only work I love to do."

"But I'd rather lie on a beach. I could spend all my life on a beach."

NO ANONYMITY

"The main trouble with acting? There isn't enough anonymity. Therefore you have to restrict yourself about where you go and what you do. Sometimes, in some places, you can't even get out and go for a walk."

"And being in the public eye forces you to be too conscious about yourself. You have to worry about a lot of small concerns that shouldn't really matter—such as whether your tie is straight."

Rock says his goal is "never to stop enjoying life. I like to get interested in new projects, exhaust them, then go on to new projects. I've tried sailing, skin diving, water skiing and golf."

Health Department Closes Jersey Camp

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. (AP) — The state Department of Health has closed the Wildwood Girl Scout Camp at nearby Harveys Lake because of an illness which struck 20 campers.

Investigators began checking the camp's two wells, which provide the drinking water supply. Harveys Lake, where the campers swim, was found free of contamination.

The camp was scheduled for use this summer by nearly 2,000 Girls

Scouts and Brownies.

Scout leaders said there was no evidence that food poisoning sickened the girls. They were stricken Thursday and Friday.

The smartest person is not the one quickest to see through a thing, but to see a thing through.

There is more liquid in a tomato than in a glass of milk. Regardless of what drink you prefer, beverage manufacturers told you about their products with $23½ million worth of newspaper advertising last year.
